

Green Infrastructure Is...

*Permeable Pavers and Bioretention,
East Glenn Public Parking, Auburn, AL*

Any feature within a development that is specifically designed to mimic the sites pre-development hydrology utilizing natural materials or processes.

*(right) Green Roof, Hays
Nature Preserve, Huntsville,
AL (Courtesy – Jerry Cargile, 4Site, Inc.)*

Those elements of our environment that utilize natural process and natural materials to serve traditional infrastructure functions.

A series of interconnected greenspaces, trails, parks, and other features that form a network of preserving ecological functional and improves community connectivity.

Constructed Wetland, Montgomery, AL

